"Just a bit about Gusano's Chicago Style Pizza's... Our Chicago Style pizza is made with the same homemade dough as our traditional pizza. However, the dough is placed in a seasoned deep-dish pizza pan and the pizza is built in reverse order of a traditional pizza. First, we cover the bottom with loads of mozzarella cheese, next we add your choice of toppings, and then we cover it all with our delicious homemade marinara with a dusting of parmesan cheese to top it off. While all of our dough, marinara, and toppings are the same for both Chicago-Style and Traditional Style pizza's, the Chicago Style's have almost twice the amount of the good stuff. Please allow at least 25 minutes for cooking time and sometimes just a little longer when we're busy, but believe us... it will be well WORTH YOUR WAIT!"
